FORWARD

by Ron Wager

Again a school year has drawn to a close, and again we are presenting an Annual Reflector to the students of Central.

In this space and missile age, school has become an increasingly important factor in every person's life. Almost every job requires at least a high school education. Those pupils who studied and tried to do their best are on the right foot to a successful life in the future.

To the ninth graders the Reflector wishes them luck next year at the high school of their choice. To the eighth and seventh graders we hope that they can carry on the "Central Motto" of "Do Right."

FRIENDLY COMMITTEE

DEDICATION

(By Bob Ostermiller)

We the journalism class of 1959-60 take pride and pleasure in dedicating this Thirty-Seventh Annual Reflector to a former teacher of Central, Mr. Paul Plambeck.

Mr. Plambeck, who was well liked by all the students in the twenty years he was a teacher at Central, recently recieved an appointment as principal of Ricker Junior High School.

Mr. Plambeck, as a student attended Central and Saginaw High, taking an active part in each school.

He received his Bachelor of Arts from the University of Michigan. Previously he had attended Capital University in Columbus, Ohio.

For his inspired teaching we are eternally grateful to Mr. Plambeck.

Dear Pupils and Teachers

Through your cooperation we achieved that which I consider to be a highlight of the school year. During the week of parents conferences for ninth grade enrollments, a record attendance by parents was set which will be a difficult goal for the eight graders to exceed next year. Of the college preparatory students, parents of 97.4% of the pupils were interviewed. Of the general course students, parents of 75.6% of the pupils were interviewed. The total per cent interviewed was 84.5%. This was a very gratifying response.

This is one of the many indications that we have had a very nice school this year. To those of you who will be leaving us at the close of the school year, we extend our best wishes for your continued success.

Irving W. Burr
Principal

Here at Central Junior you have opportunities to learn many different things to help you become a better person and a better citizen.

Here you are learning, first-hand, that we are all brothers who must help one another to live happily; and you are learning to grow in all the ways to keep this country great. You are learning the joy of work and the pleasure that comes from a job well done. Education is the key to a successful life and we want all of you to have as good a life as is possible for you.

Sincerely yours,

Program Notes:

The Highlights have some three-year veterans:

Thelma McArn
Donna Baldwin
Barbara Lichon

Karen Vitito
Junetta Daniels
Estrella Johnson

The "Calypso" number was arranged by Janice Vitito
Highlights 1955

The panomime act was arranged by Ruth Ann Troge and Bonnie Elliot. Bonnie was in an accident and is in the hospital at Clare. She has been capably replaced by Mary Beth Melville, but we are sorry she couldn't be here tonight.

The delicate beauty and artistic grace of the "outstanding number"—"Pavlova's nightmare" could only have been achieved through the combined efforts of Mrs. Ella Frye, Miss Mary Williams, and Miss Shirley Schultz who did the choreography and costumes.

THE AWARD ASSEMBLY

The 1959-60 Award Assembly was held on May the 6th. This Assembly is held once every year in recognition of outstanding members of the student body.

This year Centrals students received the Citizenship Award for a year of following the school's motto of "Do Right", Central has had the Citizenship cup since 1944. Live up to the motto and we will keep it always.

This year's award assembly was held in two seperate assemblys so that all the students could participate. Many new awards were given to outstanding students. One of these awards was an award for giving over 1,600 hours of service to the school, two girls received this award. Another award was for outstanding scholarship acheivement; And another for taking first place two years in a row in the track meet.

The only trouble with being a good sport is that you have to lose to prove that you are.

CHEERLEADERS

This year Central was very fortunate in having a very capable and well trained cheerleading squad.

The cheerleading squad was divided into two parts, a senior and junior division. The senior division consisted of five girls. They are: Jane Hammontre, Sally Slade, Ruth Ann Troge, Kathleen Fox, and Sue Schram. The Junior squad consisted of only three girls. They are: Kathleen Waller, Mary Banks, and Kay Jorden.

These girls all did an outstanding job and are thanked and congradulated by all of us.

JANITORS

The janitorial staff at Central deserves a lot of credit for doing such fine job of maintaining and keeping our school in such exceptional order.

The janitors work on two shifts, one in the day and the other during the night.

In the boiler room the head engineer is Carl Phillips. Jack Talley and William Pruiett are the firemen.

Other janitors clean the rooms, wash the desks and windows, and other jobs that are needed to maintain the school in orderly fashion.

The head janitor is John Morrell. The other janitors are Andrei Kotko, Floyd Jungerheld, Ernest Lockwood, Adolfs Saberts, Florence Thomas and Lucy Reetz is the laundress. Heady Dice is the cafeteria manager with Lucile Lindner and Louise LaCross as the cooks.

1960 HIGHLIGHTS

This year the Highlights were presented, before record crowds, under the co-direction of J. Cullen McDonald and Maybelle Torongo.

Some of the acts were: "Quiet Village," a dance by Connie Cambridge; "Ebtide," by Thelma McArn; a ballet, "The Lilac Fairy" by Donna Baldwin; "Pavlola's Dream" or "Swan Lake Was Never This", by Somebody's Darlings, a boys chorusline; "Tonight You Belong To Me," a pantomime and dance by Ruthann Troge and Mary Beth Melville; and a modern dance, "Star Dust" by the eighth grade chorus line.

All of acts participating were exceptionally well arranged and performed.

Some of the people back for their second and third years are: Kathleen Waller, Gail Hammis, Thelma McArn, Ruthann Troge, Barbara Lichon, Karen Vitito, Estrella Johnson, and Junetta Daniels.

All the acts added up to a very fine show.

MORNING DUTY

Our morning duty squad has supplied very satisfactory service this year, comments the the faculty supervisor, Mr. Piotrowski. The job is to help in supervising students from 7:30 to 8:20

Members of the moring duty squad are: Bill King, Judy Jaenike, George Hildebrandt, Bill Whisman, Elmer Smith, Ken Webber, and Dan Riggs.

9th GRADE CHORUS LINE

This year due respect must be paid to those girls in the ninth grade chorus line. Many hours of work went into the three performances they gave before record crowds.

The group's dance was taught to them by Mrs. Torongo, who also helped the other chorus lines. This was her second year working on the Highlights. Mrs. Torongo creates all of her dances.

The chorus, dressed in white satton tailored costumes performed a semi-modern dance. They did part of their routine while sitting on chairs, creating a soft shoe effect.

These students help in the cafeteria under the direction of Mrs. Dice.

Each day the students help clean up the cafeteria after the rest of the students have left.

Visiting Orchestra Presents Assembly

March 23, the Saginaw High School Orchestra presented a concert. It was attended by all of the music students.

The orchestra performed under the direction of Mr. Ergo, who also teaches music at Saginaw High. The Saginaw High Orchestra consists of about thirty students. They played seven arrangements including a piano solo by Connie Cambridge. Connie played Polonaise in A. The orchestra's numbers included; Folk Dance, Polkas, a Jazz arrangement, and an overture.

Mrs. Claudine Wicks brought the first High Steppers to the Central Junior Highlights in 1951 and has been with us ever since. Her help has been invaluable and we hope that she will be with us for a good many more performances of the Highlights.

Eighth Grade Journalism

Mr. Boertman headed the eighth grade class which helped the ninth graders with the paper in the first semester. Then during the second semester they put the paper out almost entirely by themselves.

Bob Minnich was chosen as eighth grade editor and Norm Bamberger was named as assistant editor.

Three One-Act Plays

Every year Central is honored by the auditorium's 3-one act plays. The casts for this years plays are as follows:

"Home to Mother" by Mary Lawrence

John Wingate		John Lemcke
Betty		Jane Hammontre
Nancy		Barbara Benton
Grace		Karen Hoffman
Mr. Billings		Jim Armstrong
Hollie		Yvonne Scott

"Once Upon A Prom Nite" by Louise VanDeVerg

OFFICE HELPERS

The students of Central who received an "A" or "B" scholarship average last year or the first semester of this year were picked to work in the office one day of each semester.

If they made up the work they missed during the days, they were awarded service hours.

Some of the work was made up of delivering messages, writing and delivering passes, sorting and looking up records in the file, and doing various other jobs for the office personnel.

Service Typists

Again this year, Central has had a very capable group of students acting as service typists.

Gail Hammis acted as foreman and proof reader of the Reflector typing the first semester. The second semester different foremen were appointed for shorter periods.

REFLECTOR PRINTERS

The Reflector Printers, under the direction of Mr. Dunne, have done their best to put out the Monthly and Annual Reflectors.

They have printed material for the P.T.A., and other school activities, such as plays, highlights, etc.

These boys set up, and distributed type as well as run the presses.

Dramatics Club

During the 1959-60 school year the drama-tics class has presented four plays, one-three act play. All of the students in the class have performed in at least one play during the year.

CLASS PROPHECY

As I look into my crystal ball I see what holds true for the future of our present ninth graders.

First I see Kathy Fox as a secretary for a big firm and typing at a speed of 160 words a minute. Her boss is George Triantafillou.

Now I see Jim Armstrong as a world famous algebra teacher. Betsy Melville is his secretary.

From our big rocket, which is traveling to Saturn, I see John Andros as the dictator of Mars, and Dave Natali, an army officer, trying to take control of the planet.

Our rocket is operated by Tom Berry and the hostess is Barbara Benton.

As we pass over Mars, I see John Beck at a baseball game, in which Forest Benaway is pitching, doing specialized Greek mathematic problems.

Mary Ann Blazejewski is taking pictures with the smallest camera in the world, for a newspaper owned by Janis Grigans.

The famous scientist, Larry Crotzer, has just sent a rocket to Pluto. His assistants are Bonnie Elliot and Marie Federspiel.

In a busy part of Mars, John Fordney operates a gambling hall with the main attractions, giant pin ball machines. Dick Henning is a professional poker player at the club.

Jane Hammontre and Shari Jacob are fighting for the right of women suffrage on Mars.

As we near Jupiter we see their first president, John Lemcke. Barbara Lichon has become the first woman vice president.

Paul Luebker has just built a bridge all the way across the Jupiter Ocean.

Sue Orlowski has become the first woman to swim across the Jupiter Sea.

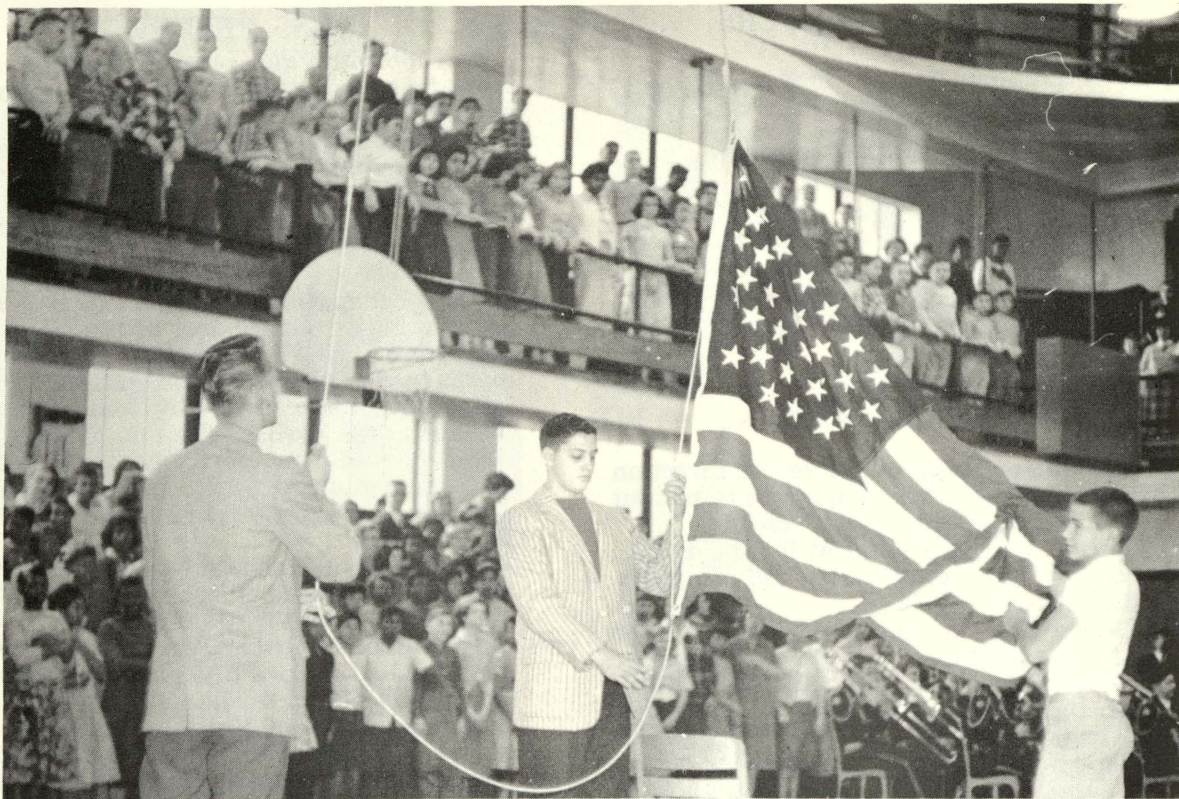

Pat Ostler is a reporter for the Jupiter Star Herald. Ruth Ann Troge is the editor.

Sue Schram, Sally Slade, and Karen Hoffman are finalists in the Miss Jupiter contests. The judges, who are Ron Howard, Bob Thomas, and Ron Wager, can't decide on the winner.

Lovell Humes has been voted the best athlete because of his ability in track, basketball, and football.

As we near Saturn the clouds over the rings darkened the crystal ball and I no longer can see into it.

Armstrong, Barbara Benton, Sharon Campell, Larry Crotzer, Bonnie Elliott, Jane Hammontre, Karen Hoffman, Ron Howard, Shari Jacob, Jean Johnson, John Lemcke, Barbara Lichon, Mary Beth Melville, Bonnie Merrill, Tom Premo, Sue Orlowski, Ed Ryan, Yvonne Scott, Ruthann Troge, Karen Vitito, Gail Volk and Barbara Warner.

Bob Minnich, Larry Crotzer, and Janis Grigans, raise the new 49 star flag that was presented to Central by Congressman Bently.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The first meeting of the student council was held in November and officers were elected. We quote its three officers:

Larry Crotzer-president; "I'm very proud to have been chosen to represent my school. I hope I have proved worthy of the honor bestowed upon me."

Bob Minnich vice president; "I'm very proud I was elected and I've tried my best to represent the students of my school."

Janis Grigans-secretary-treasurer; "I am honored to be a representative of this school and I have tried to do my best. I hope I have set a good example for other pupils that will still be here next year."

The job of the student council is to represent the student body in planning school activities, etc.

ART DEPARTMENT

Central's Art Department has done a fine job this year. Eighth graders may have art for one semester by electing arts rounds. Ninth graders receive two semesters of art if they choose it for an elective. The aim of the art classes is to expose the students to as many art techniques and materials as possible; materials such as clay, water paints, oil

CENTRAL'S ORCHESTRA

This year Central's Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Ergo, played for the annual Christmas Assembly and the Spring Concert. They did a fine job at both concerts.

During this term, twenty two students took advantage of the course.

Classes were held sixth and seventh hours.

Although this is only his second year at Central, Mr. Ergo already has become a prominent figure in Saginaw's music world. He has performed in many Civic concerts and has appeared in different church programs. Mr. Ergo is presently engaged in the city - wide program offered to grade school students who wish to learn to play the violin. Approximately 200 students take advantage of this program.

Girls Triple Trio

The Girls Triple Trio is a selected group from the Varsity Chorus. They made their debut at the Spring Concert and made other appearances through out the year.
